

IN THE FOOT-BALL WORLD

Harvard, Princeton and Penn Play Tie Games

VERMONT'S GOOD SHOWING

Yale Alone of the Big Fellows Meets an Easy Opponent—The Navy Hold Down the Crimson—Indiana Square With Quakers.

All the big teams except Yale ran smack up against it in Saturday's foot ball games. The Blue met Washington and Jefferson, which was not as strong as last year. Yale won, 38 to 0. Harvard, after being behind in the first half, scored six points in the second against the tough navy eleven and came out of it with a 6 to 6 tie. The game between Pennsylvania and the Indiana was the same, the Red and Blue leading for the first half.

But Princeton was led to it badly. The Tigers met Syracuse after the latter had been beaten by both Yale and the Indiana and reasonably expected a victory. Some of the effect of the Jones brothers' coaching of Syracuse might have been observed in the outcome. The Tigers couldn't get over the Orange goal line. Nor could the Syracuse men score on the Orange and Black.

The Army won from Colgate after a hard battle, 6 to 0, the same score as recorded between those two last year. There was battle of the lesser giants between Lafayette and Brown, the Pennsylvania players winning by two points margin. Cornell did not score very heavily against Vermont. Dartmouth won from Holy Cross without particular trouble. The results:

Harvard, 6; Annapolis, 6.
Pennsylvania, 6; Indiana, 6.

CLOSE, SNAPPY GAME WON BY MONTPELIER

Seminary Team Defeated St. Johnsbury Academy Saturday Afternoon by the Score of 6 to 2.

One of the cleanest games of foot ball seen on the Montpelier seminary campus this season was played Saturday afternoon by Montpelier sem. and St. Johnsbury, the home team winning by the score of 6 to 2. The halves were 15 and 20 minutes long. It was a royal battle from beginning to end, both sides using mass plays to advantage.

Capt. Glidden of M. S. won the toss and chose to receive the ball, defending the west goal. St. J.'s first kick-off went over the line. Montpelier rushed the next kick back to the 20 yard line. There came a hard-fought battle. Neither side was able to score a point during the entire first period.

The second half began, with expectations at a high pitch. Montpelier put Bemis into center and Niles at end. M. S. kicked off and the ball was downed on St. J.'s eight-yard line. The visitors were then held for downs and were forced to punt. Then taking the ball, M. S. by a series of fine plunges scored a touchdown. Hayden crossing the line with the ball. Hill kicked an easy goal. The remainder of the half was snappy. Mass plays were used and St. Johnsbury succeeded in forcing Montpelier back over the line for a safety.

Capt. Glidden sustained a serious injury to one ankle and was forced to leave the game, his place being taken by Bemis. Montpelier made some long gains just before the half ended, and the ball was in M. S.'s possession in the middle of the field when the whistle blew.

CORNELL 9, VERMONT 0.

Ithaca's Find the Vermonters Toughest Proposition of Season.

Ithaca, N. Y., Oct. 26.—Although Cornell defeated Vermont Saturday afternoon by a score of 9 to 0, the Ithaca men were pushed hard to do it, and the New Englanders scared them badly. In the second half Watkins and Kiescher ripped the line from tackle to tackle, and forced the Cornell men back to the 10-yard line. Here they held, and Cornell kicked. A few minutes later Watkins broke through the line and with a clear field ahead of him, started for the goal posts. Hoffman, however, caught him from behind after he had gone 20 yards. Cornell scored a field goal after Vermont had held on the goal line in the first half. Shearer made a fair catch on the 35-yard line, and Caldwell kicked the goal.

In the second half Hoffman brought the ball to the 15-yard line and Walder was pushed over in three plays. The Vermont team played splendid foot ball and proved the hardest nut to crack Cornell has met this season. The summary:

HOLY CROSS SCORES ON DARTMOUTH

Losing Team Repeatedly Tries Forward Pass, But to No Avail.

Worcester, Mass., Oct. 26.—Dartmouth defeated Holy Cross in a spectacular game Saturday afternoon by a score of 18 to 5. Two of Dartmouth's touchdowns were made in the first half on end runs, and the only touchdown for Holy Cross was secured after a forty yard run by Joy on a forward pass. An end run by Hawley, followed by line bucking gave Dartmouth its final score. The forward pass was a feature of the game, followed by Holy Cross. The Holy Cross team held Dartmouth's heavier line well, but could not stop the visitors' back field.

A TOUCHDOWN AND FIELD GOAL

Goddard Outplayed St. Michael's College Again

WON BY SCORE OF 10 TO 0

Local Seminary Made Touchdown in the First Half and Kicked Goal from Placement in the Second.

Winooski, Oct. 26.—In a loosely played game Saturday St. Michael's foot ball eleven lost to the team from Goddard seminary, 10 to 0. St. Michael's went into the field in a crippled condition after her hard game with St. Lawrence university at Canton October 17, and with Plattsburg high school last Wednesday. Dover, the regular fullback, was out of the game, and a shift of players to unfamiliar positions had a telling effect in Saturday's game.

In the first half St. Michael's received the kick-off and fumbled. The ball went into play on the 20 yard line. On an attempted trick play, the ball went to Goddard. By skin tackle plays Goddard worked the ball to St. Michael's five-yard line. On third down, Goddard worked Boynton through line for touchdown. Harrison kicked goal. Score 6 to 0. During the remainder of the half, St. Michael's held Goddard, the ball being in the middle of the field when the whistle blew.

In the second half, St. Michael's kicked to Goddard. After each side was held for downs several times, Goddard succeeded in advancing the ball to St. Michael's 30-yard line. Here they were held for downs and attempted an unsuccessful drop kick for goal. Ryan received the kick and punted back. St. Michael's was here penalized for tackling after signal for fair catch was made. Goddard kicked goal from placement on 30-yard line. Score 10 to 0. The half ended with Goddard in possession of the ball on St. Michael's 40-yard line.

STOPS BOXING IN NEW YORK.

Commis. Bingham Orders All Bouts Off.

New York, Oct. 26.—Pugilism, which has been reviving in a quiet way for several years in this city, was given a hard blow Saturday when Police Commissioner Bingham issued an order to police inspectors to stop every boxing bout scheduled for tonight and in the future within the city.

Should the order be carried out to the letter it would be the end, for a time, at least, of the "boxing game" in New York. The commissioner's action is believed to have been influenced by the great amount of publicity given a recent fight between Paddy McFarland and Leach Cross.

SON REBELLIOUS, HIS FATHER KILLS HIMSELF

Former Distilled Milkmen Cows and His Sharp Words Make it Clear.

Los Angeles, Oct. 26.—Apparently hurt by his son's expressed dislike for dairy work, Pierre Candros, a rancher living near Perry, a small station on the Redondo railway, shot himself twice and died, leaving a widow and son. The rancher had told his grown son to milk the cows.

"Why don't you do it," the latter replied.

"I don't want to. I don't have to," was the parent's answer.

A few minutes later while the son was busy with the milking task, two shots were heard and the father was found dead.

AMUSEMENT NOTES

"The Thief" at the Barre Opera House This Evening.

"Charles Frohman should parade 'The Thief' all over the United States and compel as many husbands as possible to see it," wrote Arthur Brisbane after seeing Bernstein's masterpiece. The quotation gives an idea of the play's topic—a study of the home. Every wife, as well as husband, will be absorbed in this remarkable story of the woman who steals for dress, not in vanity, but to hold her husband's admiration. Bernstein is accounted the leading dramatist of France to-day. In "The Thief" he has not only hit upon a universal topic, but he has contrived an intricate plot which is not cleared until the very last minute of the play. Its venue in New York was enormous, lasting for ten months. It will be seen here to-night at the opera house.

Mildred and Rouleure.

The "Flight of Princess Iris" an imaginative glittering fantasy in which Mildred and Rouleure and their company will present here on Wednesday, Oct. 28, at the opera house, should prove a very attractive combination, and one that will no doubt call out in large numbers, those who love the mysterious as interpreted by such clever artists as Mildred and Rouleure well known for the splendid work they have done in the past and which needs no further recommendation. The vaudeville have received in every city where they have appeared is sufficient guarantee of the splendor of their performance. Twenty-two people are carried, making one of the strongest companies on the road this season, and without doubt the most expensive that has been here this season. Mildred and Rouleure are pronounced by all who should know to be the greatest artists in their line in the world.

SENATOR PAGE IN WASHINGTON

Goes to Capital to Find a Residence

FOR USE DURING SESSION

Ex-Governor Proctor on the Same Train With Him—Both Deny That There Is Any Agreement Between Them.

Washington, Oct. 26.—Senator-elect Calvin S. Page and Ex-Gov. Fletcher D. Proctor of Vermont came to Washington Saturday. Mr. Page is here to select his winter residence. He spent several hours conferring with real estate agents and hotel men and inspecting houses and apartments. He has not yet made a selection, but expects to do so before leaving town early next week.

Ex-Gov. Proctor came to Washington on private business. As head of the great Vermont marble industry he is interested in contracts for the construction of the new senate office building, the Grant monument and a new building at the national soldiers' home. Details connected with these matters called him to Washington. After settling them up Mr. Proctor took the night train for Vermont.

Messrs. Page and Proctor came together, but they went to different hotels. Neither went to the White House during the day, and Senator Page said he did not expect to call on the president during his present visit to the capital. Both men expressed great interest in the political situation, although they said politics had nothing to do with their trip.

"Vermont is certain," said Senator Page, "but the people there are concerned about the rest of the country. My information is that Judge Taft will be elected without question."

Gov. Proctor expressed some anxiety about the campaign in New York state. "Gov. Hughes is very popular in Vermont," he said. "Our people think a great deal of him. You know he came near getting the votes of the Vermont delegation in the Chicago convention. We want him to win this year and think he will do so without doubt. The country seems to be all right for Mr. Taft."

A rumor has been current here to the effect that Messrs. Page and Proctor had made a bargain by which the former was to receive the support of the latter for senator in return for a promise from Mr. Page that he would make way for Gov. Proctor in the senate at the end of the term to which Mr. Page was just elected. This was denied today by both men. Mr. Proctor said he had announced some time ago that his interests in the marble business would not permit him to run for the senate, or anything else this year. He added that he and Mr. Page had made no trade or agreement whatever regarding the senatorship. Senator Page said that he had not looked so far ahead.

GREAT PROJECTS WILL OVERSHADOW CONGRESS

Thousands of Men Urging Internal Up-building Meet in Washington in December.

Washington, Oct. 26.—The re-assembling of Congress in December will bring thousands of men to Washington from all parts of the country, and from Dec. 1 to Dec. 14 there will be a flood of speechmaking. Governors of states will be as numerous as last May, when President Roosevelt called the heads of the state governments together for a discussion of the conservation of natural resources.

The first of the forthcoming meetings, on Dec. 1, will be that of the National Conservation Commission, organized as a result of the conference called by President Roosevelt last spring. Addresses by President Roosevelt and the president-elect are expected.

The commission is divided into four classes. A committee of thirteen is in charge of improvement of streams. Another committee of like number has the care of the forests. Still another committee of thirteen has the direction of efforts to prevent the waste of land. The fourth committee has charge of the mineral resources. That is devoting itself now to the more economical mining of coal.

The Southern Commercial Congress is expected to bring from 1,500 to 2,000 business men from the South to this city. The South has need of river and harbor improvements, and the meeting of Southern business men is expected to develop into as much of a waterway discussion as the gathering of the River and Harbor Congress, of which Representative Ransdell of Louisiana is president. That congress is to meet here on December 11, 12 and 13.

But before it comes the Country Life Commission. That will be on December 8, and it will be an adjunct of the Conservation Congress from which it sprang. That is what has been facetiously referred to as the Pufluff Commission which at the behest of President Roosevelt is to take the American farmer by the scruff of the neck and hoist him to a higher level.

The River and Harbor Congress is the body that will produce the most interesting situation. The advocates of the Lakes-to-the-Gulf Deep Waterway think the congress should make a definite endorsement of that project. Hitherto the congress has held that its object should be merely to create a sentiment throughout the country which would warrant Congress in passing an annual river and harbor appropriation bill of $50,000,000. There are other projects that look just as good to the proponents as the Lakes-to-the-Gulf plan, wherefore it seems probable also that that proposal will provoke debate.
